

“In the unrest of the masses I augur great good. It is by their realizing that their condition of life is not what it ought to be that vast improvements may be accomplished.”

– Leland Stanford

Congressional Record, 51 Congress, 1 Session: 5170, May 23, 1890